

THIS IS OUR LAST MONTH in business in Albuquerque. Our business for November shows an actual increase over November, 1904, of MORE THAN FIFTY PER CENT. Now for December, we will add additional help, and beginning tonight, December 1, our store will be kept open evenings, for the accommodation of those who cannot come in during the day. We are going out of business, but we flatter ourselves that our guarantee is GOOD. We will save you TWENTY PER CENT on CUT GLASS AND CHINA, and MORE THAN THAT ON DIAMONDS. Call early while our stock is complete.

FORECAST.

Washington, Dec. 20.—New Mexico fair Thursday and Friday.
Arizona—Partly cloudy Thursday; snow in the north and rain in the central portion; Friday fair.

Mrs. J. C. Brannan, of Santa Fe, is the guest of Mrs. Butler of 717 East street.

District Manager Darby A. Day of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, has been advised of the extension of his territory to include Western Texas in addition to New Mexico. Mr. Day left last night for El Paso, where it is possible that he may locate his headquarters.

N. Montoya and E. Archuleta were fined in police court yesterday morning for indulging in a fight on Railroad avenue Tuesday night. Montoya had been the aggressor in the affair but after his arrest, Archuleta administered a swift kick while the officer was holding his adversary, resulting in the arrest of both men.

I. L. Hibbard, general superintendent of the coal lines of the Santa Fe, arrived in the city last night on a special and will return home this evening, so as to arrive in Los Angeles in time to hang up his stockings. Mr. Hibbard is accompanied by C. A. Morse, assistant chief engineer and stenographer J. R. Andrews. The party is on a tour of general inspection and the officials are taking care of routine matters in connection with the west end of the system.

D. W. Lusk, the brilliant young journalist who has been in the territory for the past year, and who has been connected with the Santa Fe, New Mexican and the Daily Citizen, left last night for his home in Parsons, Kansas, where he will spend the holidays. He will then leave for Washington, D. C., where he will represent a large number of papers of Arizona and New Mexico during the present session of congress. Mr. Lusk has recently come into a comfortable heritage, from his father's estate, and will by the terms of the will come into possession of the Parsons Daily Sun, the leading morning newspaper of the third congressional district.

The Congregational Sunday school will have its Christmas tree on Friday night to commence promptly at 7 o'clock. Service will be held in the main auditorium Sunday morning and evening for the last time before the completion of extensive repairs now being made. A very fine musical program is now being prepared for the morning service under the direction of Mr. Washburn. A Christmas concert under the auspices of the Sunday school will be given on Sunday evening.

P. G. Lemon, superintendent of the Moqui Indian school at Kean's canyon, about one hundred miles west of Fort Defiance, spent yesterday in the city and left last night for his home. Mr. Lemon has a large boarding school, and a number of day schools to look after and states that they are all in the best of condition.

J. A. Burton, of the Grant Brothers' Construction company, which has a big contract on the Helen cut-off, left last night for Los Angeles where he will spend the holidays visiting with his family. He will return to El Paso about the third of January.

Mrs. F. E. Sturges leaves on today's limited for Los Angeles, where she will spend the holidays visiting her son, L. E. Sturges, who is spending the winter in California.

Percy Rodgers, of Dallas, Texas, is a visitor in the city.
